All are Welcome! As a community of the people of God, the members of San Marcos Lutheran Church are called to welcome all people, regardless of age, economic status, ethnic background, gender, physical or mental ability, race or sexual orientation. We affirm that in Christ "there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male or female." (Galatians 3:28)

*Instead of a message from me this month, let me share this article written recently by Bishop Elizabeth Eaton.
Peace, Pastor David Jorstad*

Coming to terms with the times

Creating programs, chasing youth trail telling the love of God

When I'm out and about in the church, I'm often asked what I plan to do to save small congregations, reverse the decline in membership, bring young adults back to church, increase mission support, make the ELCA truly multicultural, boost our relevance in the culture and fix Congress (well, not that last one). I have no plan to do any of that by myself, but I wonder if there is a deeper concern in those questions that requires a deeper answer from all of us.

The world has changed and is changing. Residents of my mother's retirement community who waited weeks to receive letters from loved ones serving overseas during World War II are now on Facebook and regularly use Skype or FaceTime to visit with grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Air travel that was once glamorous and rare for most of us is now, both in frequency and ambiance, a lot like taking the bus. It's not unusual, even in small-town America, to have Jewish, Muslim and Hindu neighbors or those with no religious affiliation at all. We are in a strange new world and don't really know how all this will shake out.

We might be tempted to overdo our efforts, to work harder and harder developing innovative programming, reading every manual on church growth, jazzing up our websites, being present on every possible social media platform. Maybe we should discover our congregation's niche: young adults, theology on tap, justice and advocacy, care of creation, ethnic specific ministry, pet blessing liturgies, urban church, rural church, big church, small church, virtual church, home church. We have done some version of all of this somewhere across the ELCA. And good for us. We need to be brave and daring. God can use our best imagination and innovation.

Or we might be tempted to circle the wagons and hold ever more tightly to what we have left. There is much that is beautiful about our traditions and buildings and heritage. What will happen to all of that if our particular congregation ceases to exist? Who will bury our parents or us? Who will take care of the parish cemetery? This is when congregations begin eyeing visitors for their value as replacement parts.

My daughter and her significant other, who was running for county commissioner, attended a church pancake breakfast where they were swarmed by parishioners who didn't realize he was a candidate. All they saw were young adults! Potential members! It was an uncomfortable experience.

But why do we want people to join our church? What does church mean to us? When I have asked that question, people often spoke about church as community or family. People talked about the good and important work their congregations carried out to feed the hungry or shelter the homeless. Some said the best thing about their congregations wasn't programs but people.

It was rare that anyone mentioned God or spoke about an encounter with the transcendent. I don't believe our people lack faith or don't know Jesus, but I wonder if we have lost the language to speak about the love of God that has been given to us in the crucified and risen Christ. Maybe we just assume Jesus. Maybe Jesus has become like wallpaper: we know it's there and everyone can see it, but we don't have to talk about it.

The best thing about the church, the thing that is uniquely the church, is not programs or people but Jesus. If we as a people, and as congregations, don't get that right it doesn't matter how many programs we come up with.

In Christ through the Spirit, God has invited us into a deeply intimate and loving relationship with God and with each other. Being church is abiding in that love. We are God's beloved people gathered around word and sacraments. That's what gives us life. That's what shapes us. That's what sends us out into the world to do justice and to love kindness (Micah 6:8). And this must be the kind of community to which we invite others-not because we want to grow or pay for the boiler or attract young people, but because we have received this incredible life-changing gift and want everyone to be touched and claimed and transformed by it too.

The Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, Presiding Bishop of the ELCA

WELCOME TO THE LORD'S TABLE!

Pastor David met with several of our young people in May. Together they gained some insights into the celebration of the Holy Communion and experienced what it can mean to be the Body of Christ. On May 17 some began receiving Holy Communion for the first time. Let's keep them all in our prayers: Nathan Young, Kyra Capezzone, Elisha Capezzone, Colin Gastauer, Caroline Nilsen, Brady Hudlow, Zachary Hudlow, Stacey Wanner, Kaia Hoolihan, & Ramzi Hreish.

Remember in Prayer:

Healing for Warren Lindgren, Frank Gift, and Cliff Adcock.

Our sympathy to the Ericsson family, at the death of Johannes' father, Pastor Hans-Goran Ericsson. May God comfort all who mourn with the hope of the resurrection.

We rejoice at the Baptism of Castiel Wolfram Glen, son of Mark and Danielle Kottke. We welcome you to the Lord's family!

We pray for Pastor Karla Halvorson who is away on her sabbatical. She will return to the office on July 21.

PSALM 8

- ¹ O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
- You have set your glory above the heavens.
- ² Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.
- ³ When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established;
- ⁴ what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals* that you care for them?
- ⁵ Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
and crowned them with glory and honour.
- ⁶ You have given them dominion over the works of
your hands;
you have put all things under their feet,
- ⁷ all sheep and oxen,
and also the beasts of the field,
- ⁸ the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
- ⁹ O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

GWOH IS SCHEDULED FOR AUG. 23rd

GWOH stands for "God's Work, Our Hands" and is an ELCA-sponsored day of service in and for the community. If you've participated the past two years or are new to the congregation, mark your calendars for a great day of work, fun, and satisfaction. Here's how it works. We are now in the process of lining up projects and contacting Team Leaders. By late June we will have all Team Leaders confirmed, and sign-ups will begin for each project. If you don't have a GWOH T-shirt, you can order them (from Jack Anderson) beginning June 14th. Some projects will take place here, others will be in the community. Many will be at Alvin Dunn Elementary School. We will be asking for donations beginning in July: 2-inch 3-ring binders with cover pocket (95 needed), backpacks, school supplies, toiletries (soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, razors, shaving cream, deodorant, etc.), peanut butter and jelly, juice boxes – to name a few. On August 23rd we will meet for worship, then be dismissed to work with our teams. We will gather at church at 12:30 p.m. for a potluck lunch and great conversation about our activities. It will be an exciting day! Watch for GWOH Updates printed on GOLDENROD paper (the color that matches our T-shirts). If you would like to volunteer to be a Team Leader, have suggestions or questions, please contact Doris Payne at 760-653-3026 or dorisp3247@gmail.com. We're fired up for our 3rd year of GWOH Sunday!

CONCERT SERIES THANK YOU

We concluded our concert series in May and would like to thank all of you who supported this with your attendance and financial gifts. It was a great success, and we look forward to the 2015-2016 Concert Series beginning in the fall.

HEARING LOOP OPPORTUNITY

Switch your hearing aids to T-coil
Sun., June 14th 9:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Luther Hall

(pre-registration required)

San Marcos Lutheran has recently installed a state-of-the-art hearing loop to enable our parishioners with hearing aids to hear more clearly during services, activities, and events.

If you have a hearing aid, your t-coil must be turned on in order to fully enjoy the benefits that our new hearing loop can provide.

We have arranged for Catherine Fabian, a professional Audiologist and two of her associates to be on site to activate the hearing aid t-coils for any of our parishioners, free of charge.

You may sign up on the table in the Narthex or call the office at (760)727-1509.

CHILDREN'S CENTER NEWS JUNE 2015

As we come to the end of another preschool year it is once again time to say good-bye to 36 children who will be leaving us for kindergarten... several of them we have known since they were but a twinkle in their parents eye, so you can imagine the separation anxiety the staff is going through!!! We continue to serve a diverse group of families from all over North County and are especially proud of the inroads we have made in serving our own community. We continue to grow in partnership with the church so that more families are attending services, participating in confirmation, donating books and supplies to Alvin Dunn, making their first communion, attending LRCC camp and our Music and Arts programs. The generosity of these families is amazing. We raised over $3000 from our trike-a-thon and installed a handcrafted cedar playhouse made by the Amish in Pennsylvania in our play yard.

Thank you to our very own Sterling Land care (Susan Agonia) for donating the landscape and to the McDaniel men for helping to assemble the play house. Thank you to Ed Simpson for keeping us supplied with paper all year and for Dr. John Ebel and several others who have donated in memory of Nellie Ebel, one of our original founders, so that a new arbor swing outdoor reading area and enhanced bible library will be a reality for our school this summer. Thank you to so many others who have donated art supplies such as yarn, threads and fabric...we are so grateful. Also so many of you prayed for us and those prayers were answered when we received word that Hannah Higgins, our little 5 year old spitfire was cured of stage 5 kidney cancer; and more prayers were answered when Christian Damian, the brother of former student, Nicolas Damian reported that his rare form of leukemia is now in re-mission. Lastly, the dedication of my amazing staff: Theresa, Leilani, Diane, Brittney and Marit continue to be the reason I get up for work each day with joy in my heart! These ladies "rock it" and frankly we just have so much fun together. Thank you to them and to my amazing partnership with Pr. David and Pr. Karla; to my wonderful Preschool Board: Deborah, Cathy, Rob, Liz, Pr. Ed and Jack; Eunice our bookkeeper and to my friend in laughter, Margo...we are doing great things together!

But our work is far from done. I have 38 new students joining us this summer and Fall! Let's give them a huge SMLC welcome and HAPPY SUMMER!

Blessings,

Anne McDaniel, Center Director

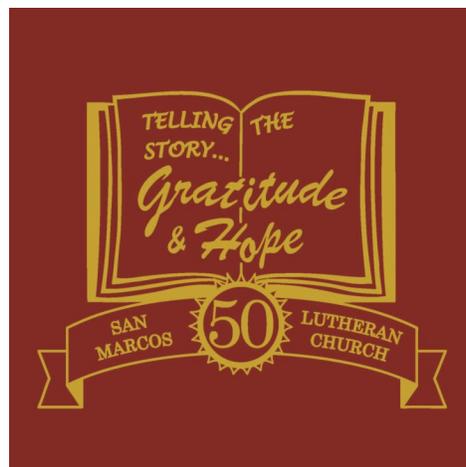

50th ANNIVERSARY UPDATE

We have worshipped, we have shared, we have celebrated, we have honored, we have created, we have sung, we have donated, we have performed and we have done almost everything possible to make this 50th anniversary year a memorable milestone for this congregation. ALMOST! At the beginning of our year, we set an ambitious goal of fundraising $30,000 for some ambitious projects. As the year of celebration comes to a close, we are within $5,000 of reaching that goal!

The last phase of projects is about to begin – the refurbishing of our Luther Fellowship Hall. Many thanks go to everyone who participated in the forum to discuss this and other topics. Your suggestions and concerns have been duly noted and are being prayerfully considered. We currently have about $7,800 to get our rehab started, but first, we need to do a bit of housekeeping.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, June 20 at 9:00 a.m. for a work party to get some of our stored “stuff” sorted, organized, re-stored or thrown away. As we did last year, this will be a chance to have the place at least tidy before Vacation Bible Camp starts on Monday, June 22. We should be able to get everything done in about two hours, so please plan for an active start to your weekend and a really fun morning!

For want of a better name, our final fundraising push will be called “Buy a Brick.” Everyone will have the opportunity select a dollar amount to contribute for the supplies and furnishings needed to make Luther Hall a more welcoming and inviting space. Whether it is $20 for a yard of drapery fabric, $75 for paint or $500 for comfortable seating, there will be something for everyone and every budget. Please watch for another poster coming out soon! Also, if you are working for a company that has a Matching Gift program, be sure to check with the HR department to request a form to submit for their contribution. Many companies will match your donation dollar for dollar.
