Our Mission: "To know, accept and live the love of God and share it with others"

November 5th

We will remember all loved ones who have entered eternal life. Our young people have made a banner for each of our members who have entered eternal life since November, 2016 and they will be placed around the altar. This is a vivid reminder of our connection to one another through the Communion of Saints.

All are Welcome! As a community of the people of God, the members of San Marcos Lutheran Church are called to welcome all people, regardless of age, economic status, ethnic background, gender, physical or mental ability, race or sexual orientation. We affirm that in Christ "there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male or female." (Galatians 3:28)

Celebrating the Richness of these Days

In the church calendar November begins with the celebration of All Saints and ends with Christ the King Sunday. November also encompasses Commitment Sunday, Veterans Day, and our National Day of Thanksgiving. These days of November are rich with celebration.

We begin on Sunday, November 5, by remembering those who have gone on before us. Who have been the saints in your life, the ones who made a point to pass the love of Jesus on to you? Think of Sunday school teachers, pastors, parents, grandparents, and friends. You may be able to put many names on your list, or just a few. The truth is that there are a host of unnamed saints who have given faithfully of their time, talent, and treasure to support the work and mission of God's Kingdom. They were ordinary people of faith who shared quietly of themselves so that we would be able to experience the joy of knowing Christ Jesus. How often have we taken their faith for granted? When we pause to thank God for all our blessings this month, let us not forget to give thanks for the all of God's Saints who committed themselves to passing along the faith.

Sunday, November 12 is commitment Sunday. We will have the opportunity to respond in gratitude for all that God has blessed us with. New members/mission partners will be received. We will also remember in prayer our veterans for their sacrifice on this Veterans Day weekend.

November 23 is the National Day of Thanksgiving in the USA. Across this country people will pause to give thanks for our many blessings. As people of faith our Thanksgiving is particularly centered in returning thanks to an all gracious God. We are called to live lives of thankful praise each and every day.

The last Sunday of the church year, November 26, is Christ the King Sunday. This is the specific Sunday we are supposed to "talk politics" in church. As Christians we are called to be members of God's Kingdom. We pray "your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." Our ultimate allegiance is to Christ the King, not to any human Caesar. Yet our king is Jesus who doesn't look anything like an earthly ruler. How can this be? God's reign in Jesus is far different than the agendas of earthly leaders. What does it mean for us to follow the one who walked a path of sacrifice and service? What does it mean to worship the one who has disarmed, because he has already won the ultimate victory? Christ Jesus is the one who conquered evil and burst the bonds of death when he rose from the tomb. Christ Jesus is the very one who now reigns in peace at the right hand of God, whose kingdom will have no end. Christ's victory is our victory as well.

May you live day by day in deep gratitude, basking in God's abundant grace!

Peace in Christ,
Pastor David Jorstad

☙ Thoughts on Living in Grace and Gratitude from Pastor Karla ❧

The world of gratitude is God's realm. It's a place where there is enough, where we receive a fresh start every day, a place where everyone is welcome; and there are creative solutions to every problem.

This is the place where God invites us to live, where God wants us to live. It's good for us! It's a place of trust and plenty, of adoration and peace. And there are secondary benefits to living in this realm of gratitude.

Did you know you cannot be in gratitude and worry at the same time? It's scientifically proven. Our brains won't allow us to simultaneously fret and give over to gratitude. Give it a try and see! Make a list of 20 things for which you are truly grateful, either mentally or on paper. Notice the lift in your mood, a new buoyancy in your spirit, and a greater trust in God.

This year's stewardship season theme is living in Grace and Gratitude. We could simply call it living in God's Realm.

The thing about God's realm is that everyone gets to participate. God planned it that way. God chooses to partner with us. So, we cheerfully do our part, even though our part is definitely the smaller portion!

There is so much to be grateful for at San Marcos Lutheran Church!
God's up to so many wonderful things in us, among us, and yes, even despite us!

I keep wondering what God will be doing next. We are active and engaged. We are praying and paying attention to the needs of our members, our neighbors, our community, and our world. We are studying God's word and doing our best to live as disciples of Christ. We are not a passive bunch! We believe God can heal us and work through us to heal this world.

People are coming to our congregation. They are finding a church home that supports their personal beliefs and commitment to the community and world. They see that what we are doing is relevant. They feel supported in their own callings to be servants of God and servants of all.

Now it is time to give back. It's time to take stock as we make our commitments of time, talents, and treasure. It's time to pray and ask God how we are to give financially and to which ministries God is calling us. It's time to answer the call.

James and I will be giving our tithe just as we learned from our parents. We will give directly from our checking account to the church (electronically) since that works best for our busy family. And we will give generously to the other special offerings and opportunities in our church and community.

We GET to give! It's fun! It's great to be active and a joy to give!
The opportunities abound. God is active and working here. Let's do this together in the Name of Christ, Amen!

At the end of September expenses exceeded income YTD by $2,355. Thanks to so many of you who are giving generously to our mission and ministry!

Some families find it advantageous at this time of the year to gift the congregation with shares of appreciated stock. (Speak with your tax advisor to see if this works for you.) The church has a brokerage account to handle such transactions. If you need information on how to set this up speak with Robin Ruben, treasurer or Pastor David Jorstad.

SMLC Annual Women's Retreat

March 2-4, 2018

John 1 :5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

Ladies of SMLC,
Once again, we are planning our retreat and we invite you to join us while we explore living in the light. As in years past, we will be staying at Luther Glen for two nights in hotel-like accommodations and enjoying five delicious meals, served to us by the staff. The cost this year is $185.00 per person and partial or full scholarships are available. There will be a sign-up table on the patio during November, and we ask for a deposit of $30 to hold your space. The balance will be due in early February, so there is plenty of time to start putting a little aside for this amazing event. We will sing and pray, study and laugh, meditate and dance, all in the light of Christ's love. Won't you join us for fellowship and worship in this beautiful, mountain setting?

In the light,
SMLC Retreat Committee

COMMITMENT SUNDAY - NOV. 12TH

Lives in our community are being touched because of the generous gifts of your time, talent, and treasure. Here is a sample of what God is up to through the ministry of SMLC: Children at Alvin Dunn Elementary School are able to excel, our preschool families are surrounded by God's love through our vibrant Children's Center ministry, kids in our neighborhood are given art and music enrichment as they learn the story of Jesus, our Sunday School is thriving once again with 45 kids enrolled, another women's retreat is planned for the winter. Folks are visited by the pastors in hospital rooms and nursing homes. Our homebound members receive calls from those who serve as Christ Bearers. Young people are enthusiastically leading worship at our 9:45 service. Who can put a price tag on those things? You are encouraged to respond generously when you fill out your commitment of giving for 2018, as well as sign up for ways you can serve through our ministries. Your Congregational Council thanks you for the many ways you support the great things God is doing at San Marcos Lutheran Church!

HAVEN HOUSE

Have you participated in the monthly meals at Interfaith's year-round homeless shelter? We're always looking for new people to share in this experience. You can contribute toward an item, just come to serve, or prepare and serve a casserole, salad, or dessert. Meat and recipes are provided. If you, maybe your family, would like to participate in December or January, please contact Doris Payne at 760-653-3026 or dorispayne3247@gmail.com. We provide dinner for 35-50 people on the 2nd Sunday of each month at their Escondido location. If you'd like to know more about Interfaith's programs, please see Doris Payne or go to their website: www.InterfaithServices.org. Thank you for your ongoing support of this ministry.

NOVEMBER 2017

Ann Leong, Director • 760-727-0326 • smlcchild@sbcglobal.net

Thanksgiving is a time of reflecting on the many blessings that God has given us throughout the year. As a Preschool, we encourage the children to reflect each day on the many blessings in their lives. At daily chapel, the children pray for their families, friends, for God's amazing creation and for all sorts of things. But it's also important that we teach the children that not everyone is blessed in the same way. So we will once again be collecting non-perishable food for Interfaith Food Pantry in Oceanside. Donations will be accepted November 1-17th and we will take it all to the pantry on Friday afternoon (17th) after we close. Happy Thanksgiving! I'm so thankful for all of you...Love & blessings, Mrs. Leong & Staff
